County Health Board Reviews Vaccinations

Situation Regarding Out-Door Toilets Also Up For Discussion

A complete review of the polio vaccine work already accomplished among school children in this county, and what still remains to be done, was made at the regular monthly meeting of the Fayette County Health Board at the health department offices in the Court House Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. N. A. Dyer discussed the whole program with the board members explaining that 982 children in the city and county already had been vaccinated with the Salk vaccine and that a few other children were still to receive their first shots, due to the inability to be present in school when the others were treated. Some of these were vaccinated during the day Tuesday.

THE NEXT ROUND of vaccination probably will take place about May 18 or 19, the time to be announced by the health department later.

Dr. Dyer explained to the board that there had been excellent cooperation in this project and that the same health department nurses, physicians of the city and county and volunteer workers probably would be used again.

Another matter to come before the board members was an explanation by Dr. Dyer and the county sanitarian, John G. Todd, of the progress being made in eliminating the outdoor toilets in the city which had no sewer connections.

THEY REPORTED that after frequent notices to residents using such toilets that a change would have to be made to connect with the city sewer system, it finally had been necessary to bring one case into court. The court gave the property owner choice of a fine and costs or having the necessary improvement made within a specified short period.

For the most part, the health officials reported, there has been reasonably good cooperation by the people notified of any change to be made by connecting their outdoor toilets to the sewer system, unless other sanitary measures had been taken.

Woman Admits Slaying Mate

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cora Mae Hawkins, 24, pleaded guilty yesterday to first degree manslaughter in the death of her common-law husband, Eugene Hawkins, 23, last Sept. 4.

The prosecution said Mrs. Hawkins crawled through the transom of his room at a hotel and sliced him with a butcher knife. She was sentenced to an indeterminate term in the Ohio Reformatory for Women.

Thugs Sentenced

CINCINNATI (AP)—Henry Kimbrough, 38, and John B. Johnson, 45, of Cincinnati and Knoxville, Tenn., were convicted yesterday in the $5,700 armed robbery of a supermarket. They were sentenced to prison for 10 to 25 years.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

Well, here we go again.

Tuesday afternoon, the report flashed into the office that a bull had mistaken Dayton Avenue for the lone prairie and was running around pursued by a crowd of youngsters with two feet of rope.

I got the assignment and went out to look. "Old 'Scoop' Fayette on the job."

Well, I got there and that's just how it was. The bull, a youthful Jersey (I think) had by then been driven out of the road into the middle of Bob Willis' wheat field. Bob wasn't overjoyed about this and took up the chase.

Most determined of the pursuers were a pair of youngsters, Bill Van Voorhis and Butch Leasure. They were running around industriously with not much more than the two feet of rope I'd been told about. It was rotten, to boot.

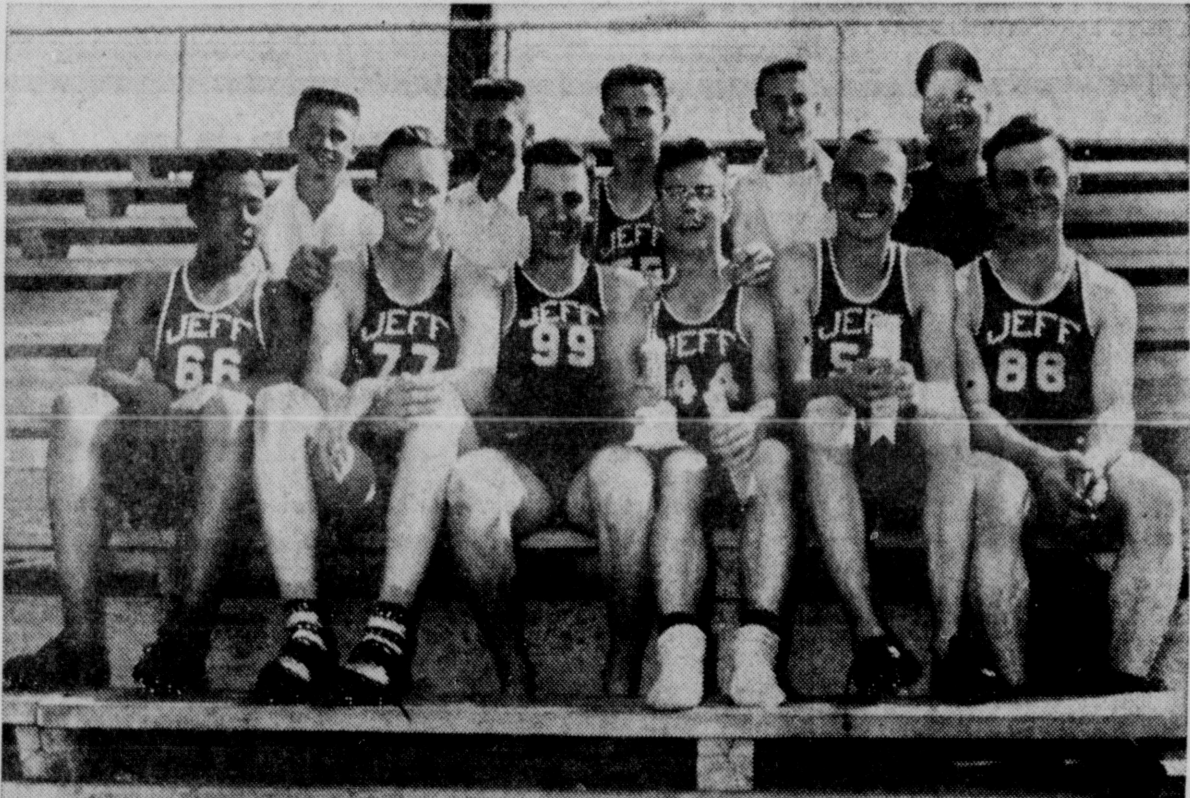

Finally, the bull was driven into Willis' barn and the owner, Herbert Rees, was called to take him away.

Today, the bull is back in the stockyards, which he can't possibly mistake for the lone prairie.

Sewer System To Be Fixed Up

Following a conference Tuesday by City Manager James F. Parkinson, George Hall, superintendent of the sewage disposal plant, and Charles Bird and Walden Sheets, consulting sanitary engineers of Columbus announcement was made that recommendations made in a report on a field survey of the intercepting sewers last fall will be carried out within a short time as weather permits.

During the conference, various recommendations made by Bird and Tienel in their field report were gone over thoroughly and discussed at length.

It was decided to clean both intercepting sewers, as the first step, and repair all leaks which are permitting creek water or water from the soil to penetrate the sewers.

Some changes are to be made to decrease the flow of sewage water into Painf Creek and handle more of it in the intercepting sewers, officials said.

Another thing agreed on was closer operating supervision of the interceptors and a check of the flow after the sewers are cleaned and leaks stopped so that the flow and volume may be determined as a guide to better operation of the entire plant.

This will be done as a prelude

Day Outdoors For Spring Track Meet

More than 500 youngsters of the county high schools dropped their books and pencils Tuesday to spend the day in the sun and take part in the annual track meet at Gardner Park in Washington C. H.

The kids left all four county high schools — Jeffersonville, Bloomingburg, Good Hope and Madison Mills — shortly after 9 A. M. in the big yellow school buses that had shortly before taken them to school.

"A perfect day for a track meet" is the way the coaches described Tuesday. That it was, but it was a perfect day for an outing too. The boys and girls who weren't running, jumping, tossing and otherwise testing themselves in the meet ran and jumped and tossed on the Gardner Park infield instead.

High school classes were dismissed for the day, but those of the elementary schools continued right on schedule.

The meet began at 10 A. M. with the first of the girls' events and lasted until 3:30 P. M. when dozens of ribbons and the coveted boys' trophy were awarded.

Winner of the trophy for top honors in the boys' meet was Jeffersonville. The trophy, awarded by Supt. G. H. Biddle of Bloomingburg, was accepted by Jeff speedster Eddie Hoppes, high scorer of the meet with three firsts and a share of the Jeff relay team's victory.

BLOOMINGBURG'S girl and boy track teams finished one and two respectively in the meet.

The girls' meet, run off in the morning under the supervision of Wilmington College physical education majors, found the Bloomingburg girls ahead with 31 points when the events ended. They were followed by the lassies from Madison Mills with 19½ points, Jeffersonville 10½ points and Good Hope 10 points.

The Bloomingburg boys wound up second with 29 points to Jeffersonville's Tigers, who garnered 34½. Madison Mills was third with 13 followed by Good Hope with 4½. The boys meet was also officiated by Wilmington College phys-ed majors.

A Wilmington College official spoke in glowing terms about the achievements of Jeffersonville's Eddie Hoppes. He won three events outright and led his team to the half-mile relay win. Besides, coping the broad jump and the 220-yard dash, Hoppes did the 100 in 10.4 seconds — no mean feat for a boy who rarely gets a chance to practice. He didn't even have the benefit of starting blocks.

Following is a rundown of the winners of each event, winning times and distances and the number of points scored.

Sam's Defense Sees Acquittal In 'Evidence'

Cleveland Judge Hears Pleas For New Trial For Convicted Slayer

CLEVELAND (AP)—Defense attorneys argued today a jury would have acquitted Dr. Samuel J. Sheppard had it heard technical testimony that a strange intruder left a drop of blood at the scene of Marilyn Sheppard's murder.

The Bay Village osteopath is seeking a new trial on a claim of newly discovered evidence. He was convicted Dec. 21 of slaying his pregnant wife last July 4 and is under life sentence.

In a hearing before the trial judge, Edward Blythin, the defense centered its drive for a new trial around an investigation conducted in January by Dr. Paul L. Kirk, professor of criminalistics at the University of California.

A week ago, Dr. Kirk offered a 50-page affidavit. One of its principal points was that the victim bit her attacker's hand, causing blood to flow. Dr. Kirk said a blood spot on a wardrobe door he longed to neither of the Sheppards.

The state replied with an affidavit by Dr. Roger W. Marsters, of University Hospital here, who said the analytical methods used by Dr. Kirk made his conclusions "certainly unwarranted."

DR. KIRK'S affidavit conceded the spot was type "O" blood, the same as the type of the murdered woman's blood. But he said the specimen reacted differently in agglutination tests.

Today the defense struck back at Dr. Marsters' affidavit.

Defense Atty. William Corrigan offered an affidavit that Dr. Kirk had read the Marsters report and had told him (Corrigan) by telephone that Dr. Marsters was mistaken. Dr. Kirk defended his techniques and challenged Dr. Marsters' qualifications.

Defense Atty. Arthur Petersilge told the court the jury would not have convicted Dr. Sheppard of second degree murder had it heard Dr. Kirk testify.

A jury convicted Sheppard last Dec. 21. Judge Blythin earlier turned down a motion for a new trial on a basis of errors in the original 10-week trial, and a defense appeal from that turnaround is scheduled to be heard May 23.

On Monday the state countered the "newly discovered evidence" claims with affidavits saying no new evidence had been produced in the crime, which occurred 10 months ago today in Sheppard's suburban Bay Village home.

Temperatures Expected To Start Decline

CHICAGO (AP)—Temperatures which climbed to summer levels in many parts of the mid-continent for two days this week appeared headed for near normal marks today.

Fairly pleasant spring weather was the outlook for much of the eastern two thirds of the country.

The cooler air which kept temperatures on the chilly side in the Rocky Mountain and Great Basin regions moved eastward across the plains and into the Mississippi Valley. Temperatures which were in the 90s and upper 80s Monday have dropped 20 to 25 degrees.

But readings were in the 90s in many Midwest areas yesterday, with a record of the date in Chicago with a 92.

Thunderstorms were reported early today in a belt extending from central Wisconsin southwestward through eastern Iowa and into northern Missouri. Light rain continued in eastern Montana and parts of North Dakota. Fair weather prevailed in most other parts of the country.

Severe thunderstorms, with tornado winds, struck sections of northeast Iowa and northern Wisconsin yesterday. The storm which hit Delaware County, in northeast Iowa, caused heavy property damage, and injured one person. An estimated 2 to 3 inches of rain fell in 20 minutes.

'Naughty' Corner Now Off Limits

TOKYO (AP)—The Army has cracked down on the naughty, noted street corner known as 4th and Y.

The downtown Tokyo corner is a respected business street by day, a lighted entertainment area by night — and in the wee hours a hangout for hundreds of prostitutes.

The Army this week posted white signs saying, "U.S. personnel not permitted to loiter in this area."

U.S. Favors King For Viet Nam

SAIGON (AP)—The United States today was reported recommending that a constitutional monarchy be established for strife-torn South Viet Nam.

As authoritative sources revealed this current American position, local and provincial Vietnamese leaders flocked to Saigon for a special congress called by Premier Ngo Dinh Diem to act on the National Revolutionary Committee's demand for the ouster of chief of state Bao Dai, the ex-emperor.

From his luxurious villa on the French Riviera, Bao Dai denounced the congress, or "states general" as illegal.

The American position was said to be that because of South Viet Nam's political immaturity, the stabilizing influence of a monarchy with only limited powers is needed to give continuity and avoid chaos.

The sources said that should local sentiment prove too great against Bao Dai, his son Bao Long or some other member of the former royal house could be designated ruler with tightly circumscribed powers.

Bao Dai, now 42, succeeded to the throne of the central Viet Nam kingdom of Annam in 1926. A puppet first of the French and then of the Japanese during the occupation, he abdicated at the end of the war and became a "supreme counselor" in the postwar revolutionary government of Communist Ho Chi Minh.

Early in 1946 he fled to Hong Kong and lived in exile there or on the French Riviera. The French brought him back in 1949 to be chief of state for Viet Nam. He went to France in April 1954 and hasn't been back to Saigon since.

Sentiment against the playboy ex-emperor increased in Saigon today. Newspapers appearing a few hours before the states general assembly gathered carried violent attacks against him.

Some published photographs of him crossed by large black marks. One displayed a picture of Bao Dai with his bulldog and asked, "Which is the more interesting?"

The Vietnamese move to oust Bao Dai followed his attempt last week to supplant Premier Diem with Gen. Nguyen Van Vy, a supporter of the chief of state.

The army refused to follow Vy, who fled into the hills.

In a cable to Diem, Bao Dai last night challenged the authority of the special congress and said its "illegality does not even need to be proved."

Ohio Escapee In Death Trial

Kenzik told the court yesterday he had fired his court-appointed attorneys and would handle his own defense.

Kenzik fled the Ohio institution March 2, 1948, while serving a 1-20 year sentence for a knife assault.

Ability To Pay Not To Be Any Consideration

President Still Thinks Voluntary Controls On Vaccine Is Best Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today that the federal government intends to see that no American child ever goes without the new polio vaccine because of inability to pay for it.

But the President told his weekly press conference that while he has given all sorts of consideration to federal controls over distribution of the vaccine, he still thinks the voluntary method is best.

The White House said later the President will ask authority, if necessary, to buy all commercial supplies.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said Eisenhower will seek authority to buy all of the Salk product which the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis does not take for the free inoculation of first and second graders, if that is necessary to meet the pledge.

Hagerty said that if a situation developed where some children could not get an inoculation because of lack of money, "the President would immediately ask the Congress of the United States for authority to permit the secretary of health, education and welfare to buy the entire output of the vaccine, other than that already allocated to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis."

Volunteering his remarks about the vaccine program, Eisenhower also said government officials are convinced the present inoculation program should go ahead despite development of paralytic polio by a few youngsters who have received vaccine produced by one firm.

The President said that in his opinion it is both safe and wise to go ahead with the inoculations.

Eisenhower's views were expressed after House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts said he favors "some federal supervision" over distribution of the vaccine.

MARTIN THUS joined a growing number of House members and senators in both political parties advocating temporary controls. Their goal to assure that while supplies are still scarce, the vaccine goes first to children in the 5 to 9 age group, which is most susceptible to polio.

Most of the plans call for young children to get the next priority. Several bills also would control prices of the vaccine.

Chairman Spence (D-Ky) of the House Banking Committee, which handles controls legislation, said he hoped to be able to start hearings by Friday.

Eisenhower also dealt with these other topics at his conference: CEASE - FIRE — Eisenhower said that at the moment the United States is in a sort of wait-and-see position with respect to possible talks between this country and Red China on a cease-fire in the Formosa area.

He added there are a number of countries, apart from the United States, which are interesting themselves in the prospect of a cease-fire. There is nothing new on the subject, he said.

POSTAL PAY — Eisenhower avoided saying whether he will veto a bill to increase the pay of postal workers an average of 8.8 per cent. He indicated a few weeks ago he would refuse to sign any bill providing for a greater hike than 7.6 per cent. But to questions today, Eisenhower said only that he looks for the bill to be on his desk shortly and he will give it careful study.

A SENATE-HOUSE Conference Committee agreed yesterday on a measure calling for an 8.8 per cent increase. The measure still is subject to action by the House and Senate as a whole.

FARM—The President said the administration program of flexible farm price supports, which went into effect this year, is good legislation but so far there has not been adequate time for it to prove itself.

Speaking out against the House bill, now up for debate, providing for a return to a rigid price support program, the President said all of what he termed under that old program.

Traffic Safety Program Given At WHS Chapel

Highway Patrolman Backs Up Plea With Own Grim Stories

Coming as a postlude to a traffic tragedy here that claimed three lives and as a prelude to commencement week when some teenagers are inclined to go galavanting around the country in cars, Sgt. J. A. Wolfe of the state Highway Patrol told Washington C. H. High School students at a special assembly program Tuesday afternoon that some of his own grim experiences as a highway patrolman and appealed to them to drive with care.

Sgt. Wolfe appeared at the assembly, which was arranged by the high school Driver Education Department headed by Arthur Engle, as a part of the continuous traffic safety program.

Traffic tragedies, he declared, were largely due to human error and recklessness. Mechanical failure, he said, is responsible for "very few."

To emphasize the menace of today's heavy traffic, Sgt. Wolfe pointed out that 36,300 were killed last year on the highways, more than 1,200,000 were seriously injured and more than $4,000,000,000 worth of property damage reported.

"HOT ROD" drivers were divided into two classes: (1) the young men interested in mechanics and safety and (2) the irresponsible human menaces who disregard law and the rights of others on the highways with their souped up jalopies.

He appealed to the young people to be careful when they are at the wheel of a car and said he hoped that, in the years to come, they could look back on the Junior-Senior Prom and the Class Night Dance as "a time of joy, not a time of tragedy."

At the conclusion of his talk Sgt. Wolfe showed a traffic safety film entitled "Word of Honor." The motion picture story was of youths' "word of honor" to drive safely.

Engle said the students were so impressed with Sgt. Wolfe's talk that they "never moved from start to finish" and that they said they wanted him to come back next year. This was the second time Sgt. Wolfe has appeared before a teen-age group at the high school here.

should be faced with a decision whether to defend the Chinese Nationalist offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu, Eisenhower indicated that he would try to decide whether any attack by the Chinese Reds was aimed exclusively at those islands or, in the long run, at Formosa itself.

The Reds, Eisenhower commented, never have made any assertions that they intend to conquer Quemoy and Matsu, their claims have been that they are out to take Formosa.

ZHUKOV — There has been no further correspondence between the President and Marshal Georgi Zhukov, Russia's new defense minister, Eisenhower said. The President disclosed last week that he and Zhukov had been in confidential correspondence which, Eisenhower said, held out some slim hope for improvement of relations.

Temple Lodge Holds Meeting

Temple Lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows held a Mother's Day observance in the lodge rooms on Main Street, Tuesday night with the wives of the members there to enjoy the occasion.

James Yates was the master of ceremonies, first of its kind ever held by the lodge.

S. R. Boggs, Methodist minister of Sardinia, gave a talk on "The Future of America as Controlled by Mother Love." Mrs. James Baughn Jr., sang a solo with Mrs. Dearl Babst at the piano. Mrs. Babst and Mrs. Baughn each played piano solos which were greatly enjoyed.

A chalk talk was given by Yates, who started with Mary, the mother of Jesus, and closed with some comic work.

Sam Reser, noble grand, spoke briefly.

Group singing was followed by refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Plans for the lodge members and Rebekahs to attend the IOOF memorial services at the First Baptist Church Sunday, May 22, were formulated.

The fourth "teachers' workshop" of the county school year was held Wednesday afternoon at the Madison Mills School.

Schools were dismissed about 11:30 A. M. so approximately 95 teachers could attend the compulsory meeting.

A general session was held before the conference broke into four small groups. Teachers chose the subject they wished to learn more about and that determined the group they joined.

The four workshop groups discussed classroom management, audio-visual aids, behavior problems and reading in high school.

Dr. H. Ashley Weeks of Ohio State University was the special consultant on behavior problems.

Miss Margaret Irwin gave the reading group pertinent information. She is reading consultant for Scott-Foresman Co., publishers.

Supt. Robert F. Angus of Madison Mills Schools was general chairman. Chairmen, recorders respectively for each group were these Madison Mills teachers: Melville Bosse and Mrs. Stella Bosse, classroom management; Frank Creamer and Mrs. Nancy Melton, audio-visual aids; Cecil Holland and Mrs. Lulu Thomas, behavior problems. W. A. Baughn and Mrs. Theresa Craig of Bloomingburg were chairman and recorder of the reading clinic.

After the workshops the teachers returned to meet as a whole group again and each recorder presented a brief summary of the discussions in the workshops.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I fear I am losing my sanity. I am 27, and my trouble started when I was 8, and my mother died. My father was an irresponsible man who drank heavily; and I was shifted from one relative to another for 18 months. Finally I was placed in an orphanage, in the care of nuns. There I was very unhappy and became moody, sulen and very, very unfriendly.

The nuns tried to help me; but I didn't realize that at the time. At 14, when a sophomore in high school, I went to live with my father. But because he wouldn't buy me clothes, I was ashamed to attend school. When I was 17 my father remarried, and I was left on my own—never asked to live with them. Consequently I started drinking and became involved with a man, an association that led to an abortion.

My anxiety attacks started soon after that; and I began to drink heavily and became more and more depressed. All I ever wanted was to meet somebody nice, get married and raise a family.

Feared All Men

However, the immediate problem is that I shake all over with nervous tension if I go out with a man nowadays; therefore I am refusing all dates, and won't take a job where there are men. In the orphanage we were punished if we talked about boys, so I came out into the world afraid of all men, including my father.

I've read many books, but they don't help. I know I have a chip on my shoulder; and may have an inferiority or a guilty complex. I would love to change, but don't know how. When drinking last summer I took some sleeping pills and landed in a hospital; and I am afraid I might do it again.

Are there any books I should read, or any place I can go for help? Most of all, tell me why I shake so, every time I go out with a man. I shall be eternally grateful for any help you may give me. P. S. I don't drink any more.

P. R.

Aid For Soul Sickness

DEAR P. R.: The essence of your distress is this—you are soul-sick; that is, morally and emotionally sick. You need the healing of fices of a father confessor, spiritually prepared to take the burden of past sin from your soul and cleanse you of guilt—so that you may start life anew, with spirit refreshed.

Also you need psychiatric therapy, to help you develop saving awareness of the unconscious destructive bias that spurs you to self-damaging behavior. Under this heading I would list your drinking bouts, the illicit behavior that led to abortion, the overdose of sleeping pills, etc. Insight into the nature of any ailment—mental, physical or moral—is the first long step towards bringing the disorder under control.

Agnes Sanford, internationally respected Protestant minister of the gospel, herself the wife and daughter of clergymen, tells in her book "The Healing Light" (Mac-alaster Park publishers) of the joyous renewal, the startling influx of spiritual succor she received, after a confessional session and receiving Holy Eucharist. Feeling burnt out and despondent, she had recourse to these religious rites, alien to her traditional pattern of worship, hoping to recover zest for living—and the formula worked.

Longs for Love

Your nervous trembling in the company of men nowadays probably refers to terrific unconscious conflict between love hunger and fear of sex. You long to love and be loved by a mate, which is humanly natural and morally right. But a senseless ingrained fear of men, as supposedly evil forces, and a guilty conscience about your teen-age sin, say "No" to your real aspirations. Add to this your tragic literal misfortune with men—your father's neglect and your adolescent betrayal—and we readily see why you feel terribly stymied in the field of man-woman relationships.

Psychiatric therapy will help you distinguish between those defeats in your past that you could not prevent, and those which you might have avoided, had you known then how to see clearly. This kind of education for living

City Purchases Asphalt Boiler

Supplants An Early Type Used Here

The city now owns a new asphalt boiler, a tank for heating asphalt before it is applied. The equipment is regarded as one of the most important of the smaller pieces required by the city.

It cost $820, City Manager James F. Parkinson stated.

The new tank takes the place of an old, outmoded outfit which has been of little service for two or three years, it was pointed out.

It will now be possible to prepare and apply "hot mix" in the winter time as well as during other seasons. This can be done without depending on private enterprise to provide "hot mix" for the city for use in street repairs.

It will also make possible the important task of applying liquid asphalt to fissures in several of the important streets and for small depressions which heretofore could not be mended with cold mix by reason of leaving a hump in the surface of the street. A spray bar attachment will make it possible to apply the tar in a spray over several feet of surface at one time a highly important part of keeping streets in condition.

CRAIG'S

Obey The Warning Siren or Red Light

Too many people, mostly motorists, use very bad judgment, in cases of highway accidents.

Sirens and red lights of ambulances, state highway sheriff or police cars are used for a purpose, but many motorists refuse to yield the right of way at a critical period.

An ambulance or highway patrolmen's car or that of a sheriff or his deputies, often is making an emergency run. Sometimes it is a bad accident and one or more persons' lives may depend on the speed with which such an emergency car reaches the scene.

A good example was the serious wreck a few miles west of here last Sunday night on the CCC Highway. In talks with highway patrolmen and other officials it was learned that in one case an ambulance, in another a highway patrol car, had great difficulty in getting where it was needed by the wrecked cars and later getting away on a mercy trip to the hospital.

Motorists and people crowded around the scene and cars were parked in such a manner that officials who were trying to clear the road and untangle traffic, as well as keep curious spectators from getting underfoot, had unusual trouble in getting the immediate things accomplished which they tried to do.

In this accident it is doubtful if any of those who met death could have been saved, but in many instances the speed with which those officially designated to give help are able to get in their work, may save lives.

Few realize how hard it is for officers to clear up a traffic congestion such as that on the highway in this case. Furthermore those who interfere by bad parking nearby or crowding about the scene, may not cause trouble intentionally but they are in the way many times.

Such things have happened in many times in various places and patrolmen and sheriffs have mentioned it often. Maybe it will require some new penalty legislation to prevent such incidents, but a lot of help could be given by motorists, and in some cases pedestrians, by keeping their cars out of such congested spots and not causing more confusion and trouble by rushing up to wrecked cars, especially when they readily can see that there are others already on the spot, giving any emergency help that is needed.

Obey the natural warning of a siren or a red light. It could perhaps, mean saving trouble for you as well as being helpful to some accident victim.

Wanted: A Big Belly Laugh

NEW YORK (AP) — If you are worried about your health, here is a consoling thought—you probably won't die laughing.

Laughter never has been a leading cause of death in any civilized country, and the danger of it knocking you off in this country is diminishing every year.

"We're a sober lot and getting soberer," said Charles Morton, a thoughtful humorist who never lets the foibles of a confused world disturb his own wry good cheer.

"It is becoming more difficult for us to laugh at ourselves. Everybody's terribly cautious. They're afraid of offending someone. As the money stakes get higher and our enterprises larger, everything seems to become desperately serious."

"This is too bad. There is enough that is upside down in this world to warrant anybody having a good big belly laugh."

Morton, associate editor of the Atlantic Monthly, is one of the few remaining masters of the light article, a deft humor form brightened by such predecessors as Stephen Leacock and Robert Benchley. After surviving the feminine indignation aroused by his book on "How to Protect Yourself Against Women and ...

Other Vicissitudes," Morton has come out with a new and equally funny guidebook to current "stuffed-shirtisms" called, "A Slight Sense of Outrage."

Among other things Morton is outraged by our V-necked men's pajamas ("men with their collars off look like picked chickens") and writers who describe bananas as "the elongated yellow fruit" and billiard balls as "the numbered spheroids."

He has a theory on how a sense of humor develops and how a humorist differs from normal people.

"Assuming a child is ordinarily intelligent and has a sense of proportion," he said, "he tends to believe what grownups tell him. He realizes they are older and have lived longer."

"But at some point he discovers that an enormous amount of what they have told him is baloney—pure moonshine — and that they don't know what they are talking about."

"This seems amusing to him and excites his sense of comedy because it is funny to see people actually believing the ridiculous things they say. It also seems funny for him to reflect they had him believing this guff, too."

"Thus humor is an awakening, a discovery. But, unfortunately if he is normal, in time this sense of comedy evaporates. He no longer is excited or amused by the crazy things people do or say. He himself becomes one of the older people who say and do things that are manifestly absurd."

"The wheel has turned full circle. But there are a few people who never get over it, who never grow up. Thus it could be interpreted that a light writer is a case of arrested development."

Morton lit up a cigar and cheerfully admitted that he was in no hurry to grow up himself.

In an age of speed everything comes and goes faster. The lightning wisecrack and the one-line cartoon gag now characterize the nation's comedy. The leisurely light humor essay is slowly dwindling.

"There are few markets left for it," said Morton, who says he wouldn't advise any mother to try to raise her boy to be a light writer.

"She couldn't do it anyway," he added. "No one who writes a good piece knows exactly how or why he was able to. All he knows is that it warms him in a strange way."

Formosan View of U. S. Support

When last February, the Nationalists on Formosa evacuated the Tachen Islands, with the assistance of the American Seventh Fleet, they assumed that they had an agreement, in writing, with the United States that because of such evacuation, Quemoy and Matsu would be defended by the United States. They believed that to be true up to Sunday, April 24, when Admiral Arthur W. Radford, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Assistant Secretary of State Walter Robertson arrived on Formosa to tell them otherwise.

(In this article, I am trying to give the picture as I understand the Chinese on Formosa see it. I do not know, of my own knowledge, what the Tachen evacuation agreement was.)

As a matter of fact, the initial rejection of Chou En-Lai's invitation to talk on a Saturday, which was nullified on the following Tuesday, was in conformity with the spirit, if not the letter, of such an agreement.

To the Nationalists, therefore, the change of attitude between Saturday and Tuesday is in the nature of a double cross—"Walk the garden path," as the Chinese say it—and they are blaming it, as usual, on the British, by which they mean that the constant necessity for adjusting American to British policy give the British, who dislike Chiang Kai-Shek, an opportunity to influence American views.

The Nationalists intend to stay put which is embarrassing to the United States, because the question then arises, will the United States blast the Nationalists off Quemoy and Matsu in the interest of communist China. The alternative to that is to let the Nationalists do their own fighting, the Seventh Fleet watching the engagement. The Nationalists will, of course, fight with American equipment just as the Chinese communists will fight with Russian equipment. It will be something like the civil war in Spain during which one side was supported by Soviet Russia and the other side by Nazi Germany. It might even be regarded in Asia as a prelude to the big fight.

Should the Nationalists be defeated and the communists decide to push on to Formosa, the Seventh Fleet would become engaged automatically, unless the United States decided to violate its treaty of alliance with Nationalist China. Should such a violation occur, the communists could readily take Formosa and Japan would be forced to reconsider her position vis-a-vis the United States. The Japan-Australia line would be in a state of collapse, and the United States would have to form a new defensive line, probably with Pearl Harbor as the core. Then Southeast Asia would go pro-communist China and anti-American because no country can accept the reliability of a treaty-breaker.

Nobody in Asia is quite sure as to what American policy is. Chiang Kai-Shek has put his faith in Radford and Robertson, two excellent officials, who have been required to make proposals to him, more acceptable, and may some day be the only way out.

Chiang has been dealing with countries for a long time. He understands that Radford and Robertson were sent on the mission to nullify the agreement concerning Quemoy and Matsu precisely because the Nationalists regard them as friends and trust them. He recognizes that public officials are often required to perform wholly unpalatable duties. Therefore, in his mind, their arguments are discounted because he does not believe that they mean what they say. They are merely carrying out their public duties, whatever their private opinions may be.

Further, all governments dealing with the United States recognize that there are actually two State Departments, if not more, and that the two do not always agree, which is why it was possible to say something officially on Saturday and to back away from it on Tuesday.

The formal State Department, presided over by John Foster Dulles and Herbert Hoover, Jr., holds the view that was expressed on Saturday; the White House group, which includes Dr. Milton Eisenhower, Harold Stassen and Nelson Rockefeller, holds the view

Diet and Health Urge To Suck Thumb Is Normal for Baby

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

A very young baby has a strong desire to suck things. He will readily suck a bottle, his fingers, his hand or just about anything that comes near his mouth. He moves his hands about aimlessly, and doesn't have the power to select one particular finger to pop into his mouth.

By the time he is seven to ten months old, his skill has increased so that he is able to place his thumb or a particular set of fingers in his mouth. Your young baby, you see, gets great satisfaction out of mouth movements.

Leave Him Alone

Because it gives him pleasure, ordinarily you shouldn't try to break him of the habit at this time. As your youngster grows older, he will gradually lose much of his desire for mouth movements. He finds other things to interest him, such as playing with his feet and hands.

Little by little, the world grows more interesting for him as he sees more and hears more. Gradually he may lose his thumb-sucking habit if you keep him well-fed and occupied, although about half of the children still suck their thumbs or fingers occasionally at the age of four.

Can Cause Deformities

Thumb-sucking can cause deformities such as buck teeth. But you probably don't have to worry if your youngster has stopped sucking his thumb by the time he is six. Most of them do, by this time. Even if your baby's upper teeth and jaw do stick out a little as a result of prolonged sucking, the deformity usually will disappear soon after he stops.

Beyond the age of six, though, thumb-sucking for hours on end might cause permanent buck teeth. You've got to determine why your child wants to suck his thumb before you can do much about it.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A. R.: I am sixteen years old and cannot take vitamin C. Can this vitamin be absorbed by the system in any other way?

Answer: Vitamin C is present in many foods, particularly the citrus fruits and a number of vegetables. It is also available in the form of tablets. You should consult with your physician concerning the best method to obtain the vitamin C you require.

The Nation Today

James Marlow

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP) — The Red Chinese, by design or necessity, have played it pretty cute since the Korean War. It's almost as if a public relations man had told them:

"Don't push your luck. Next time don't just jump into war. That's the hard way. Next time give yourself time to see what American public opinion is. That may let you know how far you can go, and what you can get, without war."

The Communists, by stopping United Nations forces in Korea, built up their prestige and self-confidence. But they lost heavily in men and supplies.

Their lack of readiness may be the real reason they haven't started shooting again. But, at the same time, Korea gave them a sharp insight into American thinking.

The Americans not only wanted to get out of the Korean War but were then and thereafter reluctant to get into war in Asia, where they could strip themselves bare in men and resources.

The Chinese Communists' first move after Korea was to help Ho Chi Minh and his Communist-led Vietnam whip the French in Indochina. They could have sent armies in to help him.

But Secretary of State Dulles warned — or maybe it wasn't a warning, because his language was so vague — that the United States would get into the Indochina fighting if the Red Chinese marched in.

Instead of sending in troops, the Reds pumped supplies and expert advisers into Indochina. Ho Chi Minh smashed the French. The United States did not go in. American allies wouldn't go in and the United States would not go in alone.

This was more evidence for the Reds of American reluctance to get into a fight in Asia. It must have been encouragement for them to make push again—which they did—without starting to shoot right away.

Their next move: threats to capture Formosa and the Matsu and Quemoy islands. They made no attempt to do so. By waiting they were able to learn what Americans thought of getting into war over the islands.

American opinion stiffened on defending Formosa. A Chinese attack on that almost certainly, at least right now, would mean war with the United States. But American opinion was divided on defending Quemoy and Matsu.

In the end, if the Reds are patient, this country may let them have Matsu and Quemoy. Meanwhile, they build up their air power as a threat to Quemoy and Matsu. Maybe when they feel strong enough they'll start a war by attacking the islands.

But why should they, if by waiting a little longer they may get them free, as they may? Their air power buildup may be a psychological ploy to pressure the administration into giving up Matsu and Quemoy since otherwise there is a chance of war.

"Hank" Gowdy Speaks Before Rotarians Here

Former Big Leaguer Gives Little League Baseball A Boost

Probably no speaker before the Washington Rotary Club ever received more enthusiastic applause than did Harry (Hank) Gowdy, Tuesday, when this famous former baseball professional concluded his talk. Gowdy became almost a national hero at the time his miracle Boston National League team in 1914 won the league pennant and immediately thereafter gained the world's championship by defeating the supposedly unbeatable Philadelphia Athletics of the American League four straight games.

Gowdy, the first big leaguer to enter war service in World War I, with the famous Rainbow Division, and who saw plenty of tough going, is now identified with the Columbus Jets front office organization. He has dedicated his recent years to helping young boys, particularly those who love baseball.

HE FORMERLY coached some of the best baseball teams in the country and before that was identified in professional playing with the New York Giants under John McGraw and with Boston of the National League. He also was with the Cincinnati Reds for some time.

He was presented to Rotarians and guests at Tuesday's luncheon at the Country Club by Howard D. Fogle who said this was the second time he had enjoyed introducing Gowdy, having had him here once before as a speaker before the American Legion. Michael Harrison, one of Rotary's new members here, secured Gowdy as the speaker for this meeting.

Fogle recited a long list of baseball achievements credited to Gowdy and also mentioned his excellent war record.

It is the psychological effect of his participation that will help him," the speaker said.

"When I watch kids play baseball I think of the lesson they must learn... if they really want to become professionals," Gowdy said.

"It's an old phrase — Fred Clark used it first, but it's as good today as it was when I was playing. It's just four words — Practice, practice, practice, practice."

Too many young players, Hank fears, practice only the things in which they already are proficient.

He pointed out that the good hit, no-field boys spend their time improving their batting. Those who can field but can't hit, hope that they'll discover some magic formula in a book to teach them how to put the wood on those elusive curve balls.

"It won't work," Hank said, "you have to work on the things you can't do well... and youngsters usually don't like to do that. The ones who pocket their pride and take the risk of looking bad while they're learning are the ones who will become good ballplayers," he stressed.

HE ADDED also that adult interest in encouraging youth to engage in clean sport would always be a vital factor in youth's future.

At the conclusion of his talk Gowdy was cordially thanked by President George Finley who told the speaker that he considered this meeting "tops" for the year.

During the club's pre-program activities following the luncheon, Lyle Self, student-guest, very nicely thanked the club for his two weeks of attendance and told how much he had enjoyed the sessions.

Paul Dougherty and B. M. Martin received the "happy birthday" song tribute of the other members and made the usual donation to the youth fund.

Edmond Woodmansee passed the cigars following the announcement of the addition of a little daughter to his household and very proudly the grandfather, Glenn Woodmansee, assisted him.

JAMES PARKINSON related that during his recent attendance of the Ohio City Managers Association meeting in Columbus, he had enjoyed the opportunity of doing a little special work for his international information committee. He mentioned making a point to cultivate friendship of prominent man from India and marking magazine articles for him to read to give him a better idea of what this country really stood for so that when he returned to his homeland he would have more conception of the real values in America than what he had heard by way of propaganda circulated in India and from the Communist line.

President Finley and Joe Peters both talked briefly of the progress made in the Little Baseball League plans and in the finishing work being done at Wilson Field which will be the scene of the organization's activities soon.

There were nine visiting Rotarians at this meeting. They were: Arnold Duncan, Lowell Wilkin and V. Hoffman of Greenfield; Robert Wright, Fred Trimble, Hubert Ball and George Tanner from Mt. Sterling; Rev. Applegate from Wil-

THE SPEAKER entertained his hearers with telling incidents of his baseball days and devoted much of his talk to pointing out the great advantage to a city like Washington C. H. in enthusiastically entering into its latest project for young boys, Little League Baseball.

He declared this movement in getting youngsters to take part in such league activities all over the country was resulting in a fine job of reselling baseball to the American people just at a time when there seemed to be a letdown in interest, especially in minor league circles.

Gowdy also declared that Little League Baseball was providing an encouragement to youth to engage in sport. It created a sense of competitive effort which will prove of great value to most of these young boys later in life.

What's all this talk about "Price Class!"

It gets to be a little confusing—this talk about what "price class" a car is in. This new Dodge is making a clean sweep in every price field!

Owners who are used to paying a thousand dollars more for a car find that money can't buy more luxury, more exciting features and beauty than in the dashing Custom Royal Lancer shown above. It's up to 9 inches longer than competitive models costing more!

And owners of so-called "low-priced cars" are finding that a new Dodge, with all its dashing length and flashing style, can be theirs for only a few dollars a month more than any of the small cars—up to 19 inches shorter and far less exciting!

Of the 11 Rose Bowl starters from Coach Woody Hayes' Big Ten and national champions, not one will be on hand. Seven are lost through graduation, and the other

New York Ends Lengthy Manhunt

CANTON, N. Y. (AP)—A manhunt through northern New York has ended where it began, in St. Lawrence County Jail, from which four men fled Wednesday.

Freshly shaven and clothed, Patrick Brooks, 26, of Gabriels, walked quietly into the main jail office at 9:06 last night. A friend drove him from the swampy woodland where he had been hunted since Friday.

Leon Casquette, 24, was taken after a gun battle Friday. Frank Talarico, 44, Utica, and Ralph La Shomb, 29, were shot when troopers found them yesterday morning. Talarico was killed.

Mother Of Year Visits With Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The "American Mother of 1955," 75-year-old Mrs. Lavina Christensen Fugal, shook hands with President Eisenhower yesterday and called it "the thrill of a lifetime something like an atomic blast."

Her voice quivering with excitement, Mrs. Fugal, grandmother of 34 children, said after talking with the President:

"When the first explosion is over, it kind of leaves you in a state of shock."

She was born in Pleasant Grove, Utah, Sept. 9, 1879, and still lives there.

Ohio Refugee Study Group Meeting

COLUMBUS (AP)—A governor's committee on refugee relief met Tuesday to seek ways to help 214,000 people to become Americans.

The Ohio group is one of at least 35 formed in states after President Eisenhower asked for help to implement the Refugee Relief Act. Under this measure, the 214,000 can come to America before Dec. 31, 1956, in addition to those allowed under regular quotas.

The group will aid Ohioans in sponsoring the refugees and help resettle the immigrants once they arrive in the state.

Cop Loses Appeal

TOLEDO (AP)—The District Court of Appeals yesterday turned down George E. LeMaster's petition seeking to compel Port Clinton to rehire him as police chief.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

Try Leeks for Mildness

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Distributed by Central Press Association

IF YOU DON'T care enough for onions to grow them, try leeks. Although closely related to onions, they differ in being of milder flavor and in not forming bulbs. Instead, the plants have flat leaves which form long, fleshy stalks. They are not palatable raw, but properly blanched are excellent in soups, stews or salads.

Leek seeds look just like onion seeds and are sown just like them, as early in the spring as the weather permits. Sow the seeds thinly, one-half inch deep in a well-prepared seed bed. When the young seedlings become three to four inches tall they should be thinned out to stand three to four inches apart in the row, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. When the plants are the size of plump straws transplant them into their final bed.

One method is to transplant the leeks into a trench as illustrated. Since leeks are blanched as they grow, the earth should gradually be filled into the trench as the plants develop. When cool fall weather approaches, gradually ridge up the soil around the leeks to blanch the higher portions of the stems.

Leeks are very hardy and with slight protection, to prevent them being snowed under, may be left in the ground all winter. They may also be taken up in the fall and placed in a cold frame.

Virgil Perrill Enters Protest In Legislature

Objects To Junket
With Much Important
Legislation Pending

Virgil Perrill, Fayette County representative in the Ohio General Assembly, cut loose with a vigorous protest in the House this week, against a junket of legislators to Chicago, to view an underground parking garage there.

It was intimated that the promoters of the legislation to use the State House grounds in Columbus for building an underground parking garage, would pay expenses of the legislators for the Chicago trip.

Perrill consistently has fought this project and is being backed by quite a number of other rural county legislators.

In his talk before the House this week, Perrill is quoted as follows:

"ONE OF OUR distinguished colleagues has accused me of being, and I quote, 'An oxcart fellow, without vision, in an airplane age.'"

"He has advised me that I should have vision and help put the State of Ohio in the Underground Parking Garage business under the State House yard; at a construction cost that would necessitate a parking charge of not less than $1.50 to $2.00 for eight hours.

"In order to attempt to sell this vision of putting the State of Ohio in the garage business, arrangements have been made to transport, by airplane, the members of the Judiciary Committee and the members of Organization of State Government Committee and other members of the House, totaling in all between forty and fifty, to look at an Underground Parking Garage in Grant Park in downtown Chicago.

"There are two questions in my mind: "First, who is so interested in the construction of this proposed garage under the State House yard that they have spent, at a conservative estimate, not less than $20,000 for engineering surveys and plans?"

"Second, who will pick up the bills and pay the cost of these airplane junkets to Chicago?"

"I have read in the newspapers that the leadership of this House will call a caucus, soon to sell us on the merits of Sub. H. J. R. No. 21 and Sub. H. B. No. 490.

"These bills provide for a constitutional change and a long range building program and the issuance of securities of the State of Ohio to provide funds to the extent of $150,000,000.00 therefore; I am informed that this very important resolution and bill were scheduled for a vote on Wednesday afternoon when many members of the House will be absent in Chicago. (The vote was later postponed).

"I believe that such important business should be deferred until next week in order that all of the members be given an opportunity to study these very important proposals and then vote upon them, or that the airplane junkets offered by kind hearted sponsors be deferred until after the Legislature has completed consideration of the many pressing and important problems that confront us.

"Last week, Mr. Speaker, you twice warned us that important proposed legislation should be acted upon as expeditiously as possible.

"I suggest to you, Mr. Speaker, that you use your influence to effect a cancellation of these airplane junkets in order that we may expedite consideration of State business which is important to all the people of Ohio, and not consider the interest of a few persons who desire us to put the State of Ohio in the Underground Parking Garage business under the State House yard."

Hot Patching of Streets Begins

Annual Job Launched
Here This Week

Work on the annual spring patching of all Washington C. H. streets is now under way and will continue as fast as weather and other pressing work of the street crews will permit.

Residents of streets which need attention are asked by City Manager James F. Parkinson to be patient until the workmen can reach the particular street. He added this would not be long if the weather is favorable for the hot patching work.

A little later the application of liquid asphalt and stone chips on some of the streets will get under way.

This method of dealing with some of the macadam streets last year was regarded as highly successful and as it is possible the work will be kept up from year to year until some of the former plain macadam streets will be firm black top thoroughfares.

MOST OF THE streets treated last year have held up remarkably well the city manager said, though it was the first application of liquid asphalt and stone chips.

The treatment last year not only laid the dust and eliminated expense of road oil application, but created a surface which was impervious to water and formed the foundation for still more successful applications in subsequent years.

Just what streets and how many will receive the asphalt and chips treatment this year has not been announced.

In past years up to last year considerable road oil was used to keep dust down on some of the macadam streets, and this expense had been going on year after year with permanent results.

WHS Golfers Gain Year's First Win

The Washington C. H. High School golf team won its first golf match of the season Tuesday as they walloped London on the Circleville course, only to lose to Circleville.

The tour has been arranged by a committee appointed by the Agronomy Committee chairman, Gene Mark. Those serving on the committee are Willard Bitzer, of the Soil Conservation Service, Leo Fisher and Albert G. Cobb, associate county agent.

A spokesman said the tour committee realizes that this is a very busy time for farmers, but it is an excellent opportunity to observe results of recommended practices.

IKE ASSURES ALL KIDS OF POLIO SHOTS

County Health Board Reviews Vaccinations

Situation Regarding Out-Door Toilets Also Up For Discussion

A complete review of the polio vaccine work already accomplished among school children in this county, and what still remains to be done, was made at the regular monthly meeting of the Fayette County Health Board at the health department offices in the Court House Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. N. A. Dyer discussed the whole program with the board members explaining that 982 children in the city and county already had been vaccinated with the Salk vaccine and that a few other children were still to receive their first shots, due to the inability to be present in school when the others were treated. Some of these were vaccinated during the day Tuesday.

THE NEXT ROUND of vaccination probably will take place about May 18 or 19, the time to be announced by the health department later.

Dr. Dyer explained to the board that there had been excellent cooperation in this project and that the same health department nurses, physicians of the city and county and volunteer workers probably would be used again.

Another matter to come before the board members was an explanation by Dr. Dyer and the county sanitarian, John G. Todd, of the progress being made in eliminating the outdoor toilets in the city which had no sewer connections.

THEY REPORTED that after frequent notices to residents using such toilets that a change would have to be made to connect with the city sewer system, it finally had been necessary to bring one case into court. The court gave the property owner choice of a fine and costs or having the necessary improvement made within a specified short period.

For the most part, the health officials reported, there has been reasonably good cooperation by the people notified of any change to be made by connecting their outdoor toilets to the sewer system, unless other sanitary measures had been taken.

Woman Admits Slaying Mate

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cora Mae Hawkins, 24, pleaded guilty yesterday to first degree manslaughter in the death of her common-law husband, Eugene Hawkins, 23, last Sept. 4.

The prosecution said Mrs. Hawkins crawled through the transom of his room at a hotel and sliced him with a butcher knife. She was sentenced to an indeterminate term in the Ohio Reformatory for Women.

Thugs Sentenced

CINCINNATI (AP)—Henry Kimbrough, 38, and John B. Johnson, 45, of Cincinnati and Knoxville, Tenn., were convicted yesterday in the $5,700 armed robbery of a supermarket. They were sentenced to prison for 10 to 25 years.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

Well, here we go again.

Tuesday afternoon, the report flashed into the office that a bull had mistaken Dayton Avenue for the lone prairie and was running around pursued by a crowd of youngsters with two feet of rope.

I got the assignment and went out to look. . . Old "Scoop" Fayette on the job.

Well, I got there and that's just how it was. The bull, a youthful Jersey (I think) had by then been driven out of the road into the middle of Bob Willis' wheat field. Bob wasn't overjoyed about this and took up the chase.

Most determined of the pursuers were a pair of youngsters, Bill Van Voorhis and Butch Leasure. They were running around industriously with not much more than the two feet of rope I'd been told about. It was rotten, to boot.

Finally, the bull was driven into Willis' barn and the owner, Herbert Rees, was called to take him away.

Today, the bull is back in the stockyards, which he can't possibly mistake for the lone prairie.

Sewer System To Be Fixed Up

Following a conference Tuesday by City Manager James F. Parkinson, George Hall, superintendent of the sewage disposal plant, and Charles Bird and Walden Sheets, consulting sanitary engineers of Columbus announcement was made that recommendations made in a report on a field survey of the intercepting sewers last fall will be carried out within a short time as weather permits.

During the conference, various recommendations made by Bird and Tiensel in their field report were gone over thoroughly and discussed at length.

It was decided to clean both intercepting sewers, as the first step, and repair all leaks which are permitting creek water or water from the soil to penetrate the sewers.

Some changes are to be made to decrease the flow of sewage water into Paint Creek and handle more of it in the interceptor sewers, officials said.

Another thing agreed on was closer operating supervision of the interceptors and a check of the flow after the sewers are cleaned and leaks stopped so that the flow and volume may be determined as a guide to better operation of the entire plant.

This will be done as a prelude

Boy Has 21 Reasons For Wanting Dog

GASTONIA, N. C. (AP)—A dog was stolen from the city dog pound and a 7-year-old boy has 21 reasons for wanting it returned. The dog is suspected of being rabid. And the boy, bitten last week by the dog, will have to take the 21-shot Pasteur treatment for rabies, just to be safe.

to studying the treatment plant proper and determining what additional provisions will be necessary to permit the plant to treat the entire flow of the interceptors. When the study is completed it may mean installation of two additional settling tanks.

The present move is part of a program of improvement started some two years ago, when steps were taken for installation of a floating cover to digest tank No. 2 and a new sludge heater was installed which doubles the capacity of the sludge beds by greatly increasing the digestion of the sludge, by raising the temperature 15 to 20 degrees.

Not only has the sludge heater, which was installed under direction of Supt. Hall, doubled the sludge bed capacity, but it has increased the gas production of the plant and reduced expenditures for natural gas.

Cleveland Judge Hears Pleas For New Trial For Convicted Slayer

More than 500 youngsters of the county high schools dropped their books and pencils Tuesday to spend the day in the sun and take part in the annual track meet at Gardner Park in Washington C. H.

The kids left all four county high schools — Jeffersonville, Bloomingburg, Good Hope and Madison Mills — shortly after 9 A. M. in the big yellow school buses that had shortly before taken them to school.

"A perfect day for a track meet" is the way the coaches described Tuesday. That it was, but it was a perfect day for an outing too. The boys and girls who weren't running, jumping, tossing and otherwise testing themselves in the meet ran and jumped and tossed on the Gardner Park infield instead.

High school classes were dismissed for the day, but those of the elementary schools continued right on schedule.

The meet began at 10 A. M. with the first of the girls' events and lasted until 3:30 P. M. when dozens of ribbons and the coveted boys' trophy were awarded.

Winner of the trophy for top honors in the boys' meet was Jeffersonville. The trophy, awarded by Supt. G. H. Biddle of Bloomingburg, was accepted by Jeff speedster Eddie Hoppes, high scorer of the meet with three firsts and a share of the Jeff relay team's victory.

BLOOMINGBURG'S girl and boy track teams finished one and two respectively in the meet.

The girls' meet, run off in the morning under the supervision of Wilmington College physical education majors, found the Bloomingburg girls ahead with 31 points when the events ended. They were followed by the lassies from Madison Mills with 19½ points, Jeffersonville 10½ points and Good Hope 10 points.

The Bloomingburg boys wound up second with 29 points to Jeffersonville's Tigers, who garnered 34½. Madison Mills was third with 13 followed by Good Hope with 4½. The boys meet was also officiated by Wilmington College phys-ed majors.

A Wilmington College official spoke in glowing terms about the achievements of Jeffersonville's Eddie Hoppes. He won three events outright and led his team to the half-mile relay win. Besides coping the broad jump and the 220-yard dash, Hoppes did the 100 in 10.4 seconds — no mean feat for a boy who rarely gets a chance to practice. He didn't even have the benefit of starting blocks.

Following is a rundown of the winners of each event, winning times and distances and the number of points scored.

Pole vault — Welsh (B) 9 feet, 3 inches, Lee (B) and Holler (MM), Daley (MM), Bloomingburg 6½, Madison Mills 2½.

Sam's Defense Sees Acquittal In 'Evidence'

Cleveland Judge Hears Pleas For New Trial For Convicted Slayer

CLEVELAND (AP)—Defense attorneys argued today a jury would have acquitted Dr. Samuel J. Sheppard had it heard technical testimony that a strange intruder left a drop of blood at the scene of Marilyn Sheppard's murder.

The Bay Village osteopath is seeking a new trial on a claim of newly discovered evidence. He was convicted Dec. 21 of slaying his pregnant wife last July 4 and is under life sentence.

In a hearing before the trial judge, Edward Blythin, the defense centered its drive for a new trial around an investigation conducted in January by Dr. Paul L. Kirk, professor of criminalistics at the University of California.

A week ago, Dr. Kirk offered a 50-page affidavit. One of its principal points was that the victim bit her attacker's hand, causing blood to flow. Dr. Kirk said a blood spot on a wardrobe door belonged to neither of the Sheppards.

The state replied with an affidavit by Dr. Roger W. Marsters, of University Hospital here, who said the analytical methods used by Dr. Kirk made his conclusions "certainly unwarranted."

DR. KIRK'S affidavit conceded the spot was type "O" blood, the same as the type of the murdered woman's blood. But he said the specimen reacted differently in agglutination tests.

Today the defense struck back at Dr. Marsters' affidavit.

Defense Atty. William Corrigan offered an affidavit that Dr. Kirk had read the Marsters report and had told him (Corrigan) by telephone that Dr. Marsters was mistaken. Dr. Kirk defended his techniques and challenged Dr. Marsters' qualifications.

Defense Atty. Arthur Petersilge told the court the jury would not have convicted Dr. Sheppard of second degree murder had it heard Dr. Kirk testify.

A jury convicted Sheppard last Dec. 21. Judge Blythin earlier turned down a motion for a new trial on a basis of errors in the original 10-week trial, and a defense appeal from that turnaround is scheduled to be heard May 23.

On Monday the state countered the "newly discovered evidence" claims with affidavits saying no new evidence had been produced in the crime, which occurred 10 months ago today in Sheppard's suburban Bay Village home.

Temperatures Expected To Start Decline

CHICAGO (AP)—Temperatures which climbed to summer levels in many parts of the mid-continent for two days this week appeared headed for near normal marks today.

Fairly pleasant spring weather was the outlook for much of the eastern two thirds of the country.

The cooler air which kept temperatures on the chilly side in the Rocky Mountain and Great Basin regions moved eastward across the plains and into the Mississippi Valley. Temperatures which were in the 90s and upper 80s Monday have dropped 20 to 25 degrees.

But readings were in the 90s in many Midwest areas yesterday, with a record of the date in Chicago with a 92.

Thunderstorms were reported early today in a belt extending from central Wisconsin southwestward through eastern Iowa and into northern Missouri. Light rain continued in eastern Montana and parts of North Dakota. Fair weather prevailed in most other parts of the country.

Severe thunderstorms, with tornado winds, struck sections of northeast Iowa and northern Wisconsin yesterday. The storm which hit Delaware County, in northeast Iowa, caused heavy property damage, and injured one person. An estimated 2 to 3 inches of rain fell in 20 minutes.

'Naughty' Corner Now Off Limits

TOKYO (AP)—The Army has cracked down on the naughty, noted street corner known as 4th and Y.

The downtown Tokyo corner is a respected business street by day, a lighted entertainment area by night — and in the wee hours a hangout for hundreds of prostitutes.

The Army this week posted white signs saying, "U.S. personnel not permitted to loiter in this area."

U.S. Favors King For Viet Nam

SAIGON (AP)—The United States today was reported recommending that a constitutional monarchy be established for strife-torn South Viet Nam.

As authoritative sources revealed this current American position, local and provincial Vietnamese leaders flocked to Saigon for a special congress called by Premier Ngo Dinh Diem to act on the National Revolutionary Committee's demand for the ouster of chief of state Bao Dai, the ex-emperor.

From his luxurious villa on the French Riviera, Bao Dai denounced the congress, or "states general" as illegal.

The American position was said to be that because of South Viet Nam's political immaturity, the stabilizing influence of a monarchy with only limited powers is needed to give continuity and avoid chaos.

The sources said that should local sentiment prove too great against Bao Dai, his son Bao Long or some other member of the former royal house could be designated ruler with tightly circumscribed powers.

Bao Dai, now 42, succeeded to the throne of the central Viet Nam kingdom of Annam in 1926. A puppet first of the French and then of the Japanese during the occupation, he abdicated at the end of the war and became a "supreme councilor" in the postwar revolutionary government of Communist Ho Chi Minh.

Early in 1946 he fled to Hong Kong and lived in exile there or on the French Riviera. The French brought him back in 1949 to be chief of state for Viet Nam. He went to France in April 1954 and hasn't been back to Saigon since.

Sentiment against the playboy ex-emperor increased in Saigon today. Newspapers appearing a few hours before the states general assembly gathered carried violent attacks against him.

Some published photographs of him crossed by large black marks. One displayed a picture of Bao Dai with his bulldog and asked, "Which is the more interesting?"

The Vietnamese move to oust Bao Dai followed his attempt last week to supplant Premier Diem with Gen. Nguyen Van Vy, a supporter of the chief of state.

The army refused to follow Vy, who fled into the hills.

In a cable to Diem, Bao Dai last night challenged the authority of the special congress and said its "illegality does not even need to be proved."

Ohio Escapee In Death Trial

CHICAGO (AP)—Trial on a murder charge continues today for an escapee from the London, Ohio, Prison farm.

A jury was selected yesterday for the trial of Peter Edward Kenzik, 47, charged with stabbing his wife Clara, to death March 13, 1953, in their apartment here.

Kenzik told the court yesterday he had fired his court-appointed attorneys and would handle his own defense.

Kenzik fled the Ohio institution March 2, 1948, while serving a 1-20 year sentence for a knife assault.

Prisoner-Volunteers Take Polio Tests

Ability To Pay Not To Be Any Consideration

President Still Thinks Voluntary Controls On Vaccine Is Best Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today that the federal government intends to see that no American child ever goes without the new polio vaccine because of inability to pay for it.

But the President told his weekly press conference that while he has given all sorts of consideration to federal controls over distribution of the vaccine, he still thinks the voluntary method is best.

The White House said later the President will ask authority, if necessary, to buy all commercial supplies.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said Eisenhower will seek authority to buy all of the Salk product which the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis does not take for the free inoculation of first and second graders, if that is necessary to meet the pledge.

Hagerty said that if a situation developed where some children could not get an inoculation because of lack of money, "the President would immediately ask the Congress of the United States for authority to permit the secretary of health, education and welfare to buy the entire output of the vaccine, other than that already allocated to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis."

Volunteering his remarks about the vaccine program, Eisenhower also said government officials are convinced the present inoculation program should go ahead despite development of paralytic polio by a few youngsters who have received vaccine produced by one firm.

The President said that in his opinion it is both safe and wise to go ahead with the inoculations.

Eisenhower's views were expressed after House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts said he favors "some federal supervision" over distribution of the vaccine.

MARTIN THUS joined a growing number of House members and senators in both political parties advocating temporary controls. Their goal to assure that while supplies are still scarce, the vaccine goes first to children in the 5 to 9 age group, which is most susceptible to polio.

Most of the plans call for younger children to get the next priority. Several bills also would control prices of the vaccine.

Chairman Spence (D-Ky) of the House Banking Committee, which handles controls legislation, said he hoped to be able to start hearings by Friday.

Eisenhower also dealt with these other topics at his conference:

CEASE - FIRE — Eisenhower said that at the moment the United States is in a sort of wait-and-see position with respect to possible talks between this country and Red China on a cease-fire in the Formosa area.

He added there are a number of countries, apart from the United States, which are interesting themselves in the prospect of a cease-fire. There is nothing new on the subject, he said.

POSTAL PAY — Eisenhower avoided saying whether he will veto a bill to increase the pay of postal workers an average of 8.8 per cent. He indicated a few weeks ago he would refuse to sign any bill providing for a greater hike than 7.6 per cent. But to questions today, Eisenhower said only that he looks for the bill to be on his desk shortly and he will give it careful study.

A SENATE-HOUSE Conference Committee agreed yesterday on a measure calling for an 8.8 per cent increase. The measure still is subject to action by the House and Senate as a whole.

FARM—The President said the administration program of flexible farm price supports, which went into effect this year, is good legislation but so far there has not been adequate time for it to prove itself.

Speaking out against the House bill, now up for debate, providing for a return to a rigid price support program, the President said all of what he termed under that old program.

Traffic Safety Program Given At WHS Chapel

Highway Patrolman Backs Up Plea With Own Grim Stories

Coming as a postlude to a traffic tragedy here that claimed three lives and as a prelude to commencement week when some teenagers are inclined to go galavanting around the country in cars, Sgt. J. A. Wolfe of the state Highway Patrol told Washington C. H. High School students at a special assembly program Tuesday about some of his own grim experiences as a highway patrolman and appealed to them to drive with care.

Sgt. Wolfe appeared at the assembly, which was arranged by the high school Driver Education Department headed by Arthur Engle, as a part of the continuous traffic safety program.

Traffic tragedies, he declared, were largely due to human error and recklessness. Mechanical failure, he said, is responsible for "very few."

To emphasize the menace of today's heavy traffic, Sgt. Wolfe pointed out that 36,300 were killed last year on the highways, more than 1,200,000 were seriously injured and more than $4,000,000,000 worth of property damage reported.

"HOT ROD" drivers were divided into two classes: (1) the young men interested in mechanics and safety and (2) the irresponsible human menaces who disregard law and the rights of others on the highways with their souped up jalopies.

He appealed to the young people to be careful when they are at the wheel of a car and said he hoped that, in the years to come, they could look back on the Junior-Senior Prom and the Class Night Dance as "a time of joy, not a time of tragedy."

At the conclusion of his talk Sgt. Wolfe showed a traffic safety film entitled "Word of Honor." The motion picture story was of youths' "word of honor" to drive safely.

Engle said the students were so impressed with Sgt. Wolfe's talk that they "never moved from start to finish" and that they said they wanted him to come back next year. This was the second time Sgt. Wolfe has appeared before a teen-age group at the high school here.

should be faced with a decision whether to defend the Chinese Nationalist offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu, Eisenhower indicated that he would try to decide whether any attack by the Chinese Reds was aimed exclusively at those islands or, in the long run, at Formosa itself.

The Reds, Eisenhower commented, never have made any assertions that they intend to conquer Quemoy and Matsu, their claims have been that they are out to take Formosa.

Rev. Norman Newman, pastor of the Methodist Church, conducted the services at the Morrow Funeral Home in Jeffersonville at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. He offered a prayer, read the Scripture and three poems, "Crossing the Bar," "The Doctor Is Not There" and "The Surgeon's Hands" and delivered the funeral sermon.

Mrs. Wayne Dowler sang "His Eye on the Sparrow" and "In the Garden." She was accompanied by Miss Louise Fuhs.

Rev. Forrest M. Moon, a former pastor of the Jeffersonville church, came to Ironton from his present home in Amelia where he is pastor of the Methodist Church, to conduct the services for Dr. Wiseman at the Phillips Funeral Home. The minister offered prayer, quoted from the Bible, delivered a sermon that was a tribute to Dr. Wiseman and read the poem "Tribute to a Doctor."

Pallbearers for the interment in Woodlawn Cemetery at Ironton were Orlynn Davis, Gordon Davis, Dr. Ray Pope, Paul Haskins, Adril Wiseman, C. E. Taylor and Ava Van Meter.

Temple Lodge Holds Meeting

Temple Lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows held a Mother's Day observance in the lodge rooms on Main Street, Tuesday night with the wives of the members there to enjoy the occasion.

James Yates was the master of ceremonies, first of its kind ever held by the lodge.

S. R. Boggs, Methodist minister of Sardinia, gave a talk on "The Future of America as Controlled by Mother Love." Mrs. James Baughn Jr., sang a solo with Mrs. Dearl Babst at the piano. Mrs. Babst and Mrs. Baughn each played piano solos which were greatly enjoyed.

A chalk talk was given by Yates, who started with Mary, the mother of Jesus, and closed with some comic work.

Sam Reser, noble grand, spoke briefly.

Group singing was followed by refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Plans for the lodge members and Rebekahs to attend the IOOF memorial services at the First Baptist Church Sunday, May 22, were formulated.

Workshop Held For Teachers

The fourth "teachers' workshop" of the county school year was held Wednesday afternoon at the Madison Mills School.

Schools were dismissed about 11:30 A. M. so approximately 95 teachers could attend the compulsory meeting.

A general session was held before the conference broke into four small groups. Teachers chose the subject they wished to learn more about and that determined the group they joined.

The four workshop groups discussed classroom management, audio-visual aids, behavior problems and reading in high school.

Dr. H. Ashley Weeks of Ohio State University was the special consultant on behavior problems. Miss Margaret Irwin gave the reading group pertinent information. She is reading consultant for Scott-Foresman Co., publishers.

Supt. Robert F. Angus of Madison Mills Schools was general chairman. Chairmen, recorders respectively for each group were these Madison Mills teachers: Melville Bosse and Mrs. Stella Bosse, classroom management; Frank Creamer and Mrs. Nancy Melton, audio-visual aids; Cecil Holland and Mrs. Lulu Thomas, behavior problems; W. A. Baughn and Mrs. Theresa Craig of Bloomingburg were chairman and recorder of the reading clinic.

After the workshops the teachers returned to meet as a whole group again and each recorder presented a brief summary of the discussions in the workshops.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I fear I am losing my sanity. I am 27, and my trouble started when I was 8, and my mother died. My father was an irresponsible man who drank heavily; and I was shifted from one relative to another for 18 months. Finally I was placed in an orphanage, in the care of nuns. There I was very unhappy and became moody, sulky and very, very unfriendly.

The nuns tried to help me; but I didn't realize that at the time. At 14, when a sophomore in high school, I went to live with my father. But because he wouldn't buy me clothes, I was ashamed to attend school. When I was 17 my father remarried, and I was left on my own—never asked to live with them. Consequently I started drinking and became involved with a man, an association that led to an abortion.

My anxiety attacks started soon after that; and I began to drink heavily and became more and more depressed. All I ever wanted was to meet somebody nice, get married and raise a family.

Feared All Men

However, the immediate problem is that I shake all over with nervous tension if I go out with a man nowadays; therefore I am refusing all dates, and won't take a job where there are men. In the orphanage we were punished if we talked about boys, so I came out into the world afraid of all men, including my father.

I've read many books, but they don't help. I know I have a chip on my shoulder; and may have an inferiority or a guilty complex. I would love to change, but don't know how. When drinking last summer I took some sleeping pills and landed in a hospital; and I am afraid I might do it again.

Are there any books I should read, or any place I can go for help? Most of all, tell me why I shake so, every time I go out with a man. I shall be eternally grateful for any help you may give me. P. S. I don't drink any more.

P. R.

Aid For Soul Sickness

DEAR P. R.: The essence of your distress is this—you are soul-sick; that is, morally and emotionally sick. You need the healing offices of a father confessor, spiritually prepared to take the burden of past sin from your soul and cleanse you of guilt—so that you may start life anew, with spirit refreshed.

Also you need psychiatric therapy, to help you develop saving awareness of the unconscious destructive bias that spurs you to self-damaging behavior. Under this heading I would list your drinking bouts, the illicit behavior that led to abortion, the overdose of sleeping pills, etc. Insight into the nature of any ailment—mental, physical or moral—is the first long step towards bringing the disorder under control.

Agnes Sanford, internationally respected Protestant minister of the gospel, herself the wife and daughter of clergymen, tells in her book "The Healing Light" (Macalaster Park publishers) of the joyous renewal, the startling influx of spiritual succor she received, after a confessional session and receiving Holy Eucharist. Feeling burnt out and despondent, she had recourse to these religious rites, alien to her traditional pattern of worship, hoping to recover zest for living—and the formula worked.

Longs for Love

Your nervous trembling in the company of men nowadays probably refers to terrific unconscious conflict between love hunger and fear of sex. You long to love and be loved by a mate, which is humanly natural and morally right. But a senseless ingrained fear of men, as supposedly evil forces, and a guilty conscience about your teen-age sin, say "No" to your real aspirations. Add to this your tragic literal misfortune with men—your father's neglect and your adolescent betrayal—and we readily see why you feel terribly stymied in the field of man-woman relationships.

Psychiatric therapy will help you distinguish between those defeats in your past that you could not prevent, and those which you might have avoided, had you known then how to see clearly. This kind of education for living

City Purchases Asphalt Boiler

Supplants An Early Type Used Here

The city now owns a new asphalt boiler, a tank for heating asphalt before it is applied. The equipment is regarded as one of the most important of the smaller pieces required by the city.

It cost $820, City Manager James F. Parkinson stated.

The new tank takes the place of an old, outmoded outfit which has been of little service for two or three years, it was pointed out.

It will now be possible to prepare and apply "hot mix" in the winter time as well as during other seasons. This can be done without depending on private enterprise to provide "hot mix" for the city for use in street repairs.

It will also make possible the important task of applying liquid asphalt to fissures in several of the important streets and for small depressions which heretofore could not be mended with cold mix by reason of leaving a hump in the surface of the street. A spray bar attachment will make it possible to apply the tar in a spray over several feet of surface at one time, a highly important part of keeping streets in condition.

2 Burglars Get Prison Terms

TROY (AP)—Two men wanted in Illinois for robbery have been sentenced to Ohio Penitentiary for terms of one to 15 years on burglary charges.

Luther Williams, 46, of Dahlgren, Ill., and Harold Bryarly, 35, of Fort Wayne, Ind., pleaded guilty. Illinois authorities reported that when arrested here Feb. 20 they were out on bond on the Illinois charge.

A third man, Van Watt Gardner, 40, of Fort Wayne, charged with burglary in the same case, also pleaded guilty but was returned to jail to await outcome of a probation investigation.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee has recommended $350,000 for sea lamprey investigations of the Fish and Wildlife Service in the Great Lakes.

This represents $200,000 more than was provided for in budgets approved by the House for the Interior Department and related agencies.

Obey The Warning Siren or Red Light

Too many people, mostly motorists, use very bad judgment, in cases of highway accidents.

Sirens and red lights of ambulances, state highway sheriff or police cars are used for a purpose, but many motorists refuse to yield the right of way at a critical period.

An ambulance or highway patrolmen's car or that of a sheriff or his deputies, often is making an emergency run. Sometimes it is a bad accident and one or more persons' lives may depend on the speed with which such an emergency car reaches the scene.

A good example was the serious wreck a few miles west of here last Sunday night on the CCC Highway. In talks with highway patrolmen and other officials it was learned that in one case an ambulance, in another a highway patrol car, had great difficulty in getting where it was needed by the wrecked cars and later getting away on a mercy trip to the hospital.

Motorists and people crowded around the scene and cars were parked in such a manner that officials who were trying to clear the road and untangle traffic, as well as keep curious spectators from getting underfoot, had unusual trouble in getting the immediate things accomplished which they tried to do.

In this accident it is doubtful if any of those who met death could have been saved, but in many instances the speed with which those are officially designated to give help are able to get in their work, may save lives.

Few realize how hard it is for officers to clear up a traffic congestion such as that on the highway in this case. Furthermore those who interfere by bad parking nearby or crowding about the scene, may not cause trouble intentionally but they are in the way many times.

Such things have happened in many times in various places and patrolmen and sheriffs have mentioned it often. Maybe it will require some new penalty legislation to prevent such incidents, but a lot of help could be given by motorists, and in some cases pedestrians, by keeping their cars out of such congested spots and not causing more confusion and trouble by rushing up to wrecked cars, especially when they readily can see that there are others already on the spot, giving any emergency help that is needed.

Obey the natural warning of a siren or a red light. It could, perhaps, mean saving your life or you as well as being helpful to some accident victim.

Wanted: A Big Belly Laugh

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — If you are worried about your health, here is a comforting thought—you probably won't die laughing.

Laughter never has been a leading cause of death in any civilized country, and the danger of it knocking you off in this country is diminishing every year.

"We're a sober lot and getting soberer," said Charles Morton, a thoughtful humorist who never lets the foibles of a confused world disturb his own dry good cheer.

"It is becoming more difficult for us to laugh at ourselves. Everybody's terribly cautious. They're afraid of offending someone. As the money stakes get higher and our enterprises larger, everything seems to become desperately serious."

"This is too bad. There is enough that is upside down in this world to warrant anybody having a good big belly laugh."

Morton, associate editor of the Atlantic Monthly, is one of the few remaining masters of the light article, a deft humorist form brightened by such predecessors as Stephen Leacock and Robert Benchley. After surviving the feminine indignation aroused by his book on "How to Protect Yourself Against Women and

Other Vicissitudes," Morton has come out with a new and equally funny guidebook to current "stuffed-shirtiness" called, "A Slight Sense of Outrage."

Among other things Morton's pajamas ("men with their collars off look like picked chickens") and writers who describe bananas as "the elongated yellow numbered spheroids."

He has a theory on how a sense of humor develops and how a humorist differs from normal people.

"Assuming a child is sensibly intelligent and has a sense of proportion," he said, "he tends to believe what grownups tell him. He realizes they are older and have lived longer."

"But at some point he discovers that an enormous amount of what they have told him is baloney—pure moonshine—and that they don't know what they are talking about."

"This seems amusing to him and excites his sense of comedy because it is funny to see people actually believing the ridiculous things they say. It also seems funny for him to reflect they had him believing this guff, too."

"Thus humor is an awakening, a discovery. But, unfortunately if he is normal, in time this sense of comedy evaporates. He no longer is excited or amused by the crazy things people do or say. He himself becomes one of the older people who say and do things that are manifestly absurd."

"The wheel has turned full circle. But there are a few people who never get over it, who never grow up. Thus it could be interpreted that a light writer is a case of arrested development."

Morton lit up a cigar and cheerfully admitted that he was in no hurry to grow up himself.

In an age of speed everything comes and goes faster. The lightning wisecrack and the one-line cartoon gag now characterize the nation's comedy. The leisurely droll humorous essay is slowly dwindling.

"There are few markets left for it," said Morton, who says he wouldn't advise any mother to try to raise her boy to be a light writer.

"She couldn't do it anyway," he added. "No one who writes a good piece knows exactly how or why he was able to. All he knows is that it warms him in a strange way."

Formosan View of U. S. Support

By George Sokolsky

When last February, the Nationalists on Formosa evacuated the Tachen Islands, with the assistance of the American Seventh Fleet, they assumed that they had an agreement, in writing, with the United States that because of such evacuation, Quemoy and Matsu would be defended by the United States. They believed that to be true up to Sunday, April 24, when Admiral Arthur W. Radford, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Assistant Secretary of State Walter Robertson arrived on Formosa to tell them otherwise.

(In this article, I am trying to give the picture as I understand the Chinese on Formosa see it. I do not know, of my own knowledge, what the Tachen evacuation agreement was.)

As a matter of fact, the initial rejection of Chou En-Lai's invitation to talk on a Saturday, which was nullified on the following Tuesday, was in conformity with the spirit, if not the letter, of such an agreement.

To the Nationalists, therefore, the change of attitude between Saturday and Tuesday is in the nature of a double cross—"Walk the garden path," as the Chinese say it—and they are blaming it, as usual, on the British, by which they mean that the constant necessity for adjusting American policy to British policy give the British, who dislike Chiang Kai-Shek, an opportunity to influence American views.

The Nationalists intend to stay put which is embarrassing to the United States, because the question then arises, will the United States blast the Nationalists off Quemoy and Matsu in the interest of communist China. The alternative to that is to let the Nationalists do their own fighting, the Seventh Fleet watching the engagement. The Nationalists will, of course, fight with American equipment just as the Chinese communists will fight with Russian equipment. It will be something like the civil war in Spain during which one side was supported by Soviet Russia and the other side by Nazi Germany. It might even be regarded in Asia as a prelude to the big fight.

Should the Nationalists be defeated and the communists decide to push on to Formosa, the Seventh Fleet would become engaged automatically, unless the United States decided to violate its treaty of alliance with Nationalist China. Should such a violation occur, the communists could readily take Formosa and Japan would be forced to reconsider her position vis-a-vis the United States. The Japan-Australia line would be in a state of collapse, and the United States would have to form a new defensive line, probably with Pearl Harbor as the core. Then Southeast Asia would go pro-communist China and anti-American because no country can accept the reliability of a treaty-breaker.

Nobody in Asia is quite sure as to what American policy is. Chiang Kai-Shek has put his faith in Radford and Robertson, two excellent officials, who have been required to make proposals to him, more acceptable, and may some day be the only way out.

Chiang has been dealing with countries for a long time. He understands that Radford and Robertson were sent on the mission to nullify the agreement concerning Quemoy and Matsu precisely because the Nationalists regard them as friends and trust them. He recognizes that public officials are often required to perform wholly unpalatable duties. Therefore, in his mind, their arguments are discounted because he does not believe that they mean what they say. They are merely carrying out their public duties, whatever their private opinions may be.

Further, all governments dealing with the United States recognize that there are actually two State Departments, if not more, and that the two do not always agree, which is why it was possible to say something officially on Saturday and to back away from it on Tuesday.

The formal State Department, presided over by John Foster Dulles and Herbert Hoover, Jr., holds the view that was expressed on Saturday; the White House group, which includes Dr. Milton Eisenhower, Harold Stassen and Nelson Rockefeller, holds the view which was expressed on Tuesday. The British, who frankly do not like Dulles, try to by-pass him by going directly to the White House group, and that makes for confusion and uncertainty.

Coroner, Wife Accused In Narcotic Case

BATAVIA (AP) — The coroner of Clermont County and his wife are to appear in mayor's court accused of fraudulently obtaining morphine.

State narcotics inspector Jack Braunstein said Dr. Frederick S. Skeen and his wife, Helen, a registered nurse, got the morphine by prescribing it for patients and switching it with a harmless drug.

Dr. Skeen, 44, has been coroner for this southwestern Ohio county for several years.

Braunstein said the physician would prescribe the narcotic for the patient, instruct him to get it back to the office. Then the doctor would switch the morphine or its derivative with phenobarbital and give the package back to the patient, Braunstein said.

Braunstein works for the state board of pharmacy, which became interested in the situation after noting a large number of morphine prescriptions in the area.

"According to the prescriptions written, half of the town is addicted to drugs," Braunstein commented. "But the patients haven't been using them."

He estimated the coroner had procured drugs worth thousands of dollars in a year's time but said he doubted the doctor was selling the morphine.

Father Of Three Suing Parents

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Bay Village salesman has sued his parents for $25,000 and asked that common pleas court restrain them from allegedly trying to entice his three children to live with them.

Frank C. Westfall, 40, said his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Westfall, had provided a home for his children, Robert, 12; Marilyn, 11, and James, 10, after their mother died. But two years ago, the children left their grandparents' home to return to that of their father following his remarriage.

Urge To Suck Thumb Is Normal For Baby

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

A very young baby has a strong desire to suck things. He will readily suck a bottle, his fingers, his hand or just about anything that comes near his mouth. He moves his hands about aimlessly, and doesn't have the power to select one particular finger to pop into his mouth.

By the time he is seven to ten months old, his skill has increased so that he is able to place his thumb or a particular set of fingers in his mouth. Your young baby, you see, gets great satisfaction out of mouth movements.

Leave Him Alone

Because it gives him pleasure, ordinarily you shouldn't try to break him of the habit at this time. As your youngster grows older, he will gradually lose much of his desire for mouth movements. He finds other things to interest him, such as playing with his feet and hands.

Little by little, the world grows more interesting for him as he sees more and hears more. Gradually he may lose his thumb-sucking habit if you keep him well-fed and occupied, although about half of the children still suck their thumbs or fingers occasionally at the age of four.

Can Cause Deformities

Thumb-sucking can cause deformities such as buck teeth. But you probably don't have to worry if your youngster has stopped sucking his thumb by the time he is six. Most of them do, by this time. Even if your baby's upper teeth and jaw do stick out a little as a result of prolonged sucking, the deformity usually will disappear soon after he stops.

Beyond the age of six, though, thumb-sucking for hours on end might cause permanent buck teeth. You've got to determine why your child wants to suck his thumb before you can do much about it.

The Nation Today

James Marlow

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Red Chinese, by design or necessity, have played it pretty cute since the Korean War. It's almost as if a public relations man had told them:

"Don't push your luck. Next time don't just jump into war. That's the hard way. Next time give yourself time to see what American public opinion is. That may let you know how far you can go, and what you can get, without war."

The Communists, by stopping United Nations forces in Korea, built up their prestige and self-confidence. But they lost heavily in men and supplies.

Their lack of readiness may be the real reason they haven't started shooting again. But, at the same time, Korea gave them a sharp insight into American thinking:

The Americans not only wanted to get out of the Korean War but were then and thereafter reluctant to get into war in Asia, where they could strip themselves bare in men and resources.

The Chinese Communists' first move after Korea was to help Ho Chi Minh and his Communist-led Vietnam whip the French in Indochina. They could have sent armies in to help him.

But Secretary of State Dulles warned — or maybe it wasn't a warning, because his language was so vague—that the United States would get into the Indochina fighting if the Red Chinese marched in.

Instead of sending in troops, the Reds pumped supplies and expert advisers into Indochina. Ho Chi Minh smashed the French. The United States didn't go in. American allies wouldn't go in and the United States would not go in alone.

This was more evidence for the Reds of American reluctance to get into a fight in Asia. It must have been encouragement for them to make push again—which they did—without starting to shoot right away.

Their next move: threats to capture Formosa and the Matsu and Quemoy islands. They made no attempt to do so. By waiting they were able to learn what Americans thought of getting into war over the islands.

American opinion stiffened on defending Formosa. A Chinese attack on that almost certainly, at least right now, would mean war with the United States. But American opinion was divided on defending Quemoy and Matsu.

In the end, if the Reds are patient, this country may let them have Matsu and Quemoy. Meanwhile, they build up their air power as a threat to Quemoy and Matsu. Maybe when they feel strong enough they'll start a war by attacking the islands.

But why should they, if by waiting a little longer they may get them free, as they may? Their air power buildup, as they may be a psychological needle on the American people: to pressure the administration into giving up Matsu and Quemoy since otherwise there is a chance of war.

"Hank" Gowdy Speaks Before Rotarians Here

Former Big Leaguer Gives Little League Baseball A Boost

Probably no speaker before the Washington Rotary Club ever received more enthusiastic applause than did Harry (Hank) Gowdy, Tuesday, when this famous former baseball professional concluded his talk. Gowdy became almost a national hero at the time his miracle Boston National League team in 1914 won the league pennant and immediately thereafter gained the world's championship by defeating the supposedly unbeatable Philadelphia Athletics of the American League four straight games. Gowdy, the first big leaguer to enter war service in World War I, with the famous Rainbow Division, and who saw plenty of tough going, is now identified with the Columbus Jets front office organization. He has dedicated his recent years to helping young boys, particularly those who love baseball.

HE FORMERLY coached some of the best baseball teams in the country and before that was identified in professional playing with the New York Giants under John McGraw and with Boston of the National League. He also was with the Cincinnati Reds for some time.

He was presented to Rotarians and guests at Tuesday's luncheon at the Country Club by Howard D. Fogle who said this was the second time he had enjoyed introducing Gowdy, having had him here once before as a speaker before the American Legion. Michael Harrison, one of Rotary's new members here, secured Gowdy as the speaker for this meeting.

Fogle recited a long list of baseball achievements credited to Gowdy and also mentioned his excellent war record.

HE TOLD HOW this almost "immortal" baseball figure was greatly enjoying himself in acting as coordinator of youth activities in connection with the Columbus Jets organization which in addition to now having a team in the International League, also is planning for the extension of youth activities in connection with the Columbus Baseball Park and the buying of additional ground to promote other sports activities for the boys of Columbus and vicinity.

Gowdy mentioned briefly what was being planned in Columbus by the forward-looking group of eleven men who put up the money to save baseball for Columbus and said these men also have other big plans for the future. They are doing this, the speaker said, without any possibility of financial return and expect their only reward to be the satisfaction they will obtain for making a success of quite a venture in baseball as well as in promoting a worthwhile movement for the youth of Franklin County.

THE SPEAKER entertained his hearers with telling incidents of his baseball days and devoted much of his talk to pointing out the great advantage to a city like Washington C. H. in enthusiastically entering into its latest project for young boys, Little League Baseball.

He declared this movement in getting youngsters to take part in such league activities all over the country was resulting in a fine job of reselling baseball to the American people just at a time when there seemed to be a letdown in interest, especially in minor league circles.

Gowdy also declared that Little League Baseball was providing an encouragement to youth to engage in sport. It created a sense of competitive effort which will prove of great value to most of these young boys later in life.

"DON'T WORRY about a boy who does not play real well. Let him make errors and strike out.

Probate Judge

It is the psychological effect of his participation that will help him," the speaker said.

"When I watch kids play baseball I think of the lesson they must learn... if they really want to become professionals," Gowdy said.

"It's an old phrase — Fred Clark used it first, but it's as good today as it was when I was playing. It's just four words — Practice, practice, practice, practice."

Too many young players, Hank fears, practice only the things in which they already are proficient. He pointed out that the good hit, no-field boys spend their time improving their batting. Those who can field but can't hit, hope that they'll discover some magic formula in a book to teach them how to put the wood on those elusive curve balls.

"It won't work," Hank said, "you have to work on the things you can't do well... and youngsters usually don't like to do that. The ones who pocket their pride and take the risk of looking bad while they're learning are the ones who will become good ballplayers," he stressed.

HE ADDED also that adult interest in encouraging youth to engage in clean sport would always be a vital factor in youth's future.

At the conclusion of his talk Gowdy was cordially thanked by President George Finley who told the speaker that he considered this meeting "tops" for the year.

During the club's pre-program activities following the luncheon, Lyle Self, student-guest, very nicely thanked the club for his two weeks of attendance and told how much he had enjoyed the sessions. Paul Dougherty and B. M. Martin received the "happy birthday" song tribute of the other members and made the usual donation to the youth fund.

Edmond Woodmansee passed the cigars following the announcement of the addition of a little daughter to his household and very proudly the grandfather, Glenn Woodmansee, assisted him.

JAMES PARKINSON related that during his recent attendance of the Ohio City Managers Association meeting in Columbus, he had enjoyed the opportunity of doing a little special work for his international information committee. He mentioned making a point to cultivate friendship of prominent man from India and marking magazine articles for him to read to give him a better idea of what this country really stood for so that when he returned to his homeland he would have more conception of the real values in America than what he had heard by way of propaganda circulated in India and from the Communist line.

President Finley and Joe Peters both talked briefly of the progress made in the Little Baseball League plans and in the finishing work being done at Wilson Field which will be the scene of the organization's activities soon.

There were nine visiting Rotarians at this meeting. They were: Arnold Duncan, Lowell Wilkin and V. Hoffman of Greenfield; Robert Wright, Fred Trimble, Hubert Balcom and George Tanner from Mt. Sterling; Rev. Applegate from Wil-

Following the dinner, the Lioness president, Mrs. Charles M. Griffiths was in charge of introduction of guests: District Governor Don Gibson and Mrs. Gibson, Lion's Club president, Wayne Bower and Mrs. Bower, and a prospective member Mrs. Robert Boyd.

The business meeting consisted of the monthly and annual reports of secretary and treasurer.

The retiring president, Mrs. Griffiths expressed her appreciation to members for their splendid co-operation during her term in office.

What's all this talk about "Price Class!"

It gets to be a little confusing—this talk about what "price class" a car is in. This new Dodge is making a clean sweep in every price field!

Owners who are used to paying a thousand dollars more for a car find that money can't buy more luxury, more exciting features and beauty than in the dashing Custom Royal Lancer shown above. It's up to 9 inches longer than competitive models costing more!

And owners of so-called "low-priced cars" are finding that a new Dodge, with all its dashing length and flashing style, can be theirs for only a few dollars a month more than any of the small cars—up to 19 inches shorter and far less exciting!

Bucks To Wind Up Football Prep With 'Clinic' Contest

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's footballers wind up their spring training with the annual "clinic" game Saturday, but the team will bear little resemblance to the one which romped through 10 straight wins including the Rose Bowl, last season.

Of the 11 Rose Bowl starters from Coach Woody Hayes' Big Ten and national champions, not one will be on hand. Seven are lost through graduation, and the other four will not be in uniform. The four non-graduates are All-America halfback Hopalong Cassidy, who is playing centerfield for the Buck baseball team; tackle Moose Machinsky and guard Jim Parker, who have been excused from further practice, and fullback Hubert Bobo who is wrestling with his studies.

With quarterbacks Dave Leggett and John Borton among the graduates, Hayes was counting on Bill Booth as his No. 1 signal caller. But Booth broke a bone in his hand last Saturday and will miss the intra-squad fray.

Lee Williams of Springfield, the team's speed merchant and offensive standout in spring drills from a halfback spot, joined the track squad this week and will not be available for play. The same goes for Jerry Harkrader of Middletown, a certainty for the right halfback chore, who has been excused from further workouts.

With all the standouts missing, the several thousand fans and several hundred high school coaches attending the Saturday contest will need programs to learn who is playing.

The State's scholastic coaches will attend the Friday - Saturday clinic, and will hold their annual election. Wayne Stoddard of Akron is due to succeed George Vlerhome of Zanesville as president of the state's high school grid mentors.

Annual meeting of the board of directors of the coaches association is scheduled Thursday night, at which final plans for the Aug. 12 North-South all-star game at Mansfield will be wrapped up. The 1955 all-star contest has been awarded to Canton.

Columbus Jets Labeled 'Surprise'

COLUMBUS (AP) — The second-place Columbus Jets are being tagged the "surprise team" of the 1955 International League season so far.

Columbus moved to within one-half game of the top by defeating the Toronto Maple Leafs 4-3 in a completion of a suspended seven-inning game last night. Then they went on to drop the Leafs by an identical count in a regularly scheduled contest.

The Montreal Royals jumped to the top by defeating the Havana

10 May Go To Wire In Lush Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The field for Saturday's running of the $125,000 added Kentucky Derby today stood at eight definite and two probable starters after Flying Fury's thrilling but unimpressive victory in the Derby Trial.

On the definite list, as they have been all week, are Nashua, Summer Tan, Swamps, Racing Fool, Flying Fury, Jean's Joe, Blue Lem and Honeys Alibi. Probables are Nabesna and Trim Destiny.

Should all 10 start, the race will gross $152,500 with the winner taking down a net of $108,400. Thanks to an increase of $25,000 in added money by Churchill Downs, the race is the richest in its 81 years.

Post time is 4:30 p. m., EST. The race will be carried on 212 radio and 163 television stations.

There was nothing in the result of the Trial yesterday to jar any of the followers of Nashua and Summer Tan.

Parimutuel officials predicted the big bay from William Woodward's Belair stud will open at 4 to 5 and possibly go off at even shorter odds.

Summer Tan, carrying the hopes of Mrs. John W. Galbreath of Galbreath, Ohio, was quoted at 2 to 1 with Rex Ellsworth's Swaps, choice of the West, third in line at 6 to 1.

Flying Fury's time in the trial shows neither he or any of those in back of him figure to menace the favorites. Flying Fury was clocked in :38 as he beat the Murcan Stable's Jean's Joe by a nose. That time was two-fifths of a second slower than Nashua worked out.

No Changes Seen In ABC Tourney

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — The 52nd American Bowling Congress tournament went through its second straight day without a single change among the top 10 in any of the four divisions.

While temperatures in Fort Wayne soared to the high 80s yesterday, the bowlers cooled off and scores fell away below par in one of the lightest of scoring days.

Most of the excitement during the 39th day of the 72-day tourney was turned in by a trio of bowlers from the Lewis Pharmacy team of Chicago. The three slept through the train stop at Fort Wayne and woke up in Lima, about 64 miles from Fort Wayne. The three got to Fort Wayne in time to bowl.

Omaha Captures Lead In AA Race

OMAHA (AP) — Omaha slapped Indianapolis, 9-2, and forged into the American Association lead as all other first division clubs suffered one-run setbacks last night.

The Minneapolis nine-game win streak died in the 10th inning at Charleston, 7-6.

St. Paul used Bert Hamric's two-run homer in the eighth to dump Toledo, 4-3, and Denver won its first game in eight meetings with Louisville, 4-3.

Carey High Coach Gives Up Position

CAREY (AP) — Coach Mearl Atkins said a full classroom teaching load plus coaching with no assistants led to his resignation yesterday as head football and tennis coach at Carey High School.

He said he will stay on at the school as an instructor.

Tribe, Lemon Seek 6 Wins In Succession

CLEVELAND (AP) — Six victories in a row for the Tribe and six in a row for Bob Lemon. That's what the Cleveland Indians will be shooting for tonight in the windup of a two-game series against New York's Yankees.

The Indians 7-4 victory over the Yankees last night in the first meeting of the rivals this year kept Cleveland in first place.

The Tribe is one game ahead of its pennant-winning pace of a year ago, when Lemon also started out with six victories. But Lemon did not get No. 6 until May 19 last season.

Mike Garcia, who didn't beat the Yankees in all of 1954 and lost to them three times, was the winner last night, although he went out for a pinch hitter in the seventh when Cleveland was trailing 4-3.

It was in that inning the Tribe chased southpaw Eddie Lopat with a four-run rally, three of the tallies unearned. A double by Hank Foiles and two walks filled the bases with two out and Bob Avila rapped a single to right field.

Foiles, barreling home from second, was beaten by Hank Bauer's throw, but slid feet-first into catcher Yogi Berra who was waiting on his knees to make the tag. Yogi let loose of the ball, which rolled all the way to the grandstand while two unearned runs scored and Avila went to third. Vic Wertz's single plated Avila.

New York Ends Lengthy Manhunt

CANTON, N. Y. (AP)—A manhunt through northern New York has ended where it began, in St. Lawrence County Jail, from which four men fled Wednesday.

Freshly shaven and clothed, Patrick Brooks, 26, of Gabriels, walked quietly into the main jail office at 9:06 last night. A friend drove him from the swampy woodland where he had been hunted since Friday.

Leon Casinkette, 24, was taken after a gun battle Friday. Frank Talarico, 44, Utica, and Ralph La Shomb, 29, were shot when troops found them yesterday morning. Talarico was killed.

Mother Of Year Visits With Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The "American Mother of 1955," 75-year-old Mrs. Lavinia Christensen Fugal, shook hands with President Eisenhower yesterday and called it "the thrill of a lifetime something like an atomic blast."

Her voice quivering with excitement, Mrs. Fugal, grandmother of 34 children, said after talking with the President:

"When the first explosion is over, it kind of leaves you in a state of shock."

She was born in Pleasant Grove, Utah, Sept. 9, 1879, and still lives there.

Ohio Refugee Study Group Meeting

COLUMBUS (AP)—A governor's committee on refugee relief met Tuesday to seek ways to help 214,000 people to become Americans.

The Ohio group is one of at least 35 formed in states after President Eisenhower asked for help to implement the Refugee Relief Act.

Under this measure, the 214,000 can come to America before Dec. 31, 1956, in addition to those allowed under regular quotas.

The group will aid Ohioans in sponsoring the refugees and help resettle the immigrants once they arrive in the state.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

Try Leeks for Mildness

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Distributed by Central Press Association

IF YOU don't care enough for onions to grow them, try leeks.

Although closely related to onions, they differ in being of milder flavor and in not forming bulbs. Instead, the plants have flat leaves which form long, fleshy stalks. They are not palatable raw, but properly blanched they are excellent in soups, stews or salads.

Leek seeds look just like onion seeds and are sown just like them, as early in the spring as the weather permits.

Sow the seeds thinly, one-half inch deep in a well-prepared seed bed. When the young seedlings become three to four inches tall they should be thinned out to stand three to four inches apart in the row, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. When the plants are the size of plump straws transplant them into their final bed.

One method is to transplant the leeks into a trench as illustrated. Since leeks are blanched as they grow, the earth should gradually be filled into the trench as the plants develop. When cool fall weather approaches, gradually ridge up the soil around the leeks to blanch the higher portions of the stems.

Leeks are very hardy and with slight protection, to prevent them being snowed under, may be left in the ground all winter. They may also be taken up in the fall and placed in a cold frame.

Virgil Perrill Enters Protest In Legislature

Objects To Junket
With Much Important
Legislation Pending

Virgil Perrill, Fayette County's representative in the Ohio General Assembly, cut loose with a vigorous protest in the House this week, against a junket of legislators to Chicago, to view an underground parking garage there.

It was intimated that the promoters of the legislation to use the State House grounds in Columbus for building an underground parking garage, would pay expenses of the legislators for the Chicago trip.

Perrill consistently has fought this project and is being backed by quite a number of other rural county legislators.

In his talk before the House this week, Perrill is quoted as follows:

"ONE OF OUR distinguished colleagues has accused me of being, and I quote, 'An oxcart fellow, without vision, in an airplane age.'"

"He has advised me that I should have vision and help put the State of Ohio in the Underground Parking Garage business under the State House yard; at a construction cost that would necessitate a parking charge of not less than $1.50 to $2.00 for eight hours."

"In order to attempt to sell this vision of putting the State of Ohio in the garage business, arrangements have been made to transport, by airplane, the members of the Judiciary Committee and the members of Organization of State Government Committee and other members of the House, totaling in all between forty and fifty, to look at an Underground Parking Garage in Grant Park in downtown Chicago."

"There are two questions in my mind:

"First, who is so interested in the construction of this proposed garage under the State House yard that they have spent, at a conservative estimate, not less than $20,000 for engineering surveys and plans?"

"Second, who will pick up the bills and pay the cost of these airplane junkets to Chicago?"

"I have read in the newspapers that the leadership of this House will call a caucus, soon to sell on the merits of Sub. H. J. R. No. 21 and Sub. H. B. No. 490."

"These bills provide for a constitutional change and a long range building program and the issuance of securities of the State of Ohio to provide funds to the extent of $150,000,000; therefore, I am informed that this very important resolution and bill were scheduled for a vote on Wednesday afternoon when many members of the House will be absent in Chicago. (The vote was later postponed)."

"I believe that such important business should be deferred until next week in order that all of the members be given an opportunity to study these very important proposals and then vote upon them, or that the airplane junkets offered by kind hearted sponsors be deferred until after the Legislature has completed consideration of the many pressing and important problems that confront us."

"Last week, Mr. Speaker, you twice warned us that important proposed legislation should be acted upon as expeditiously as possible."

"I suggest to you, Mr. Speaker, that you use your influence to effect a cancellation of these airplane junkets in order that we may expedite consideration of State business which is important to all the people of Ohio, and not consider the interest of a few persons who desire us to put the State of Ohio in the Underground Parking Garage business under the State House yard."

Hot Patching of Streets Begins

Annual Job Launched
Here This Week

Work on the annual spring patching of all Washington C. H. streets is now under way and will continue as fast as weather and other pressing work of the street crews will permit.

Residents of streets which need attention are asked by City Manager James F. Parkinson to be patient until the workmen can reach the particular street. He added this would not be long if the weather is favorable for the hot patching work.

A little later the application of liquid asphalt and stone chips on some of the streets will get under way.

This method of dealing with some of the macadam streets last year was regarded as highly successful and as it is possible the work will be kept up from year to year until some of the former plain macadam streets will be firm black top thoroughfares.

MOST OF THE streets treated last year have held up remarkably well the city manager said, though it was the first application of liquid asphalt and stone chips.

The treatment last year not only laid the dust and eliminated expense of road oil application, but created a surface which was impervious to water and formed the foundation for still more successful applications in subsequent years.

Just what streets and how many will receive the asphalt and chips treatment this year has not been announced.

In past years up to last year considerable road oil was used to keep dust down on some of the macadam streets, and this expense had been going on year after year with permanent results.

WHS Golfers Gain Year's First Win

The Washington C. H. High School golf team won its first golf match of the season Tuesday as they walloped London on the Circleville course, only to lose to Circleville.

The triangular meet put Circleville out front, as it whipped Washington C. H. 12½-3½ and London, 10-0. The Lion victory over London was by a 13-3 score.
